

Proverbs 24:16, "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief."

Making mistakes is simply a part of learning. As Christians we will make plenty of mistakes, designed by the Master as a method for teaching us valuable lessons. But with each mistake, God is waiting with stretched out hand to lift us up.

Sometimes we want to stay down, cry a little and hide from embarrassment. Our attitude determines how quickly we learn from our mistakes and how long we wait before we reach out and take hold of the Father's hand which is waiting to lift us up.

Psalm 34:19, "Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all."

Psalm 37:24, "Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand."

Micah 7:8, "Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me."
