

Proverbs 28:26, “He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.”

The numbers found in this reference are quite interesting when relating them to the verse. With our “2” feet we decide whom we will follow: our own heart or the heart of God.

Many times in the past we have used the number “8” to represent the lazy Christian whom is fat on themselves.

With this thought, the chapter “28” could represent the fat Christian who decides to follow his own heart when making decisions instead of going to God in prayer.

In the second part of this verse it talks about the wise man being delivered. Delivered from what? - His own foolishness and sin. The number "6" is used to represent sin and our fallen nature. With this thought, the verse "26" could represent the wise Christian who decides to follow the Lord and be delivered from sin.
