

Psalm 69:14, “Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.”

Psalm 40:2, “He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.”

Isaiah 57:20, “But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.”

Satan has a way of making sin look appealing. He has been practicing on humans for over 2,000 years. He has developed a talent knowing what traps work best. The only way we can be smart enough to avoid the danger is through God’s Word and seeking His direction for every step we take in our life. We may not be able to see the trap or the danger, but we know that God can.

Never make the mistake to think you are smart enough to take a step without seeking His guidance!

Hebrews 11:25, “Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;”

Proverbs 20:17, “Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.”

Psalm 40:12-13, "For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me. Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me."

We don't have to live in shame, desiring to hide from God. The bondage of sin can easily beset any Christian. What you do about the situation determines if you will sink in the mire or call out to God to pull you out. Pray for God to help you seek truth and deliverance.

2 Timothy 2: 25-26, "...if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."
